

ADMINISTRATIVE ORGANIZATION

The Board of Education desires that the administrative organizational structure of the school system accommodate and enhance the attainment of goals and objectives it has set forth for the schools, particularly those relating to the educational program. This organization will assure that schools effectively and efficiently carry out programs and respond to any new programs demanded by system needs or opportunities, or suggested by research or successful practice. The organization also must allow the schools opportunities to address their particular needs and improve existing programs.

Adoption date: July 9, 2007